Ashtakavarga

Ashtakavarga is a unique method used to know the strength of each house based on the positions of the Ascendant, Sun, Moon, Mars, Venus & Mercury. Astakavarga method divides each Rashi house into subdivisions based on the position of Ascendant & 7 planets. Rahu & Ketu are omitted in calculations as these are not real planets instead they are the nodes of the Moon which are formed during its orbit in the ecliptic plane

	1(Ta)	2(Ge)	3(Ca)	4(Le)	5(Vi)	6(Li)	7(Sc)	8(Sa)	9(Ca)	10(Aq)	11(Pi)	12(Ar)
Sun	3	3	3	3	4	2	5	5	3	5	5	6
Moon	7	8	1	3	1	7	3	4	5	5	3	2
Mars	2	2	1	4	1	2	6	1	2	0	5	8
Mercury	3	5	5	3	5	4	4	2	6	5	5	8

TOTAL	24	27	20	26	24	36	22	19	30	29	35	41

The common rules that are taught for Ashtakavarga are: Below 25 is weak, 25 to 28 is average, above 28 is good, when planets transit a house about 30 points they bring about positive results, if planets transit a house with below 25 points results may not be good. Please note this is, in general, whereas the predictions may vary depending on various other qualifiers that your astrologer able to analyze better.

Shadbala

Shadbala is a mathematical model to quantify the strength attained from 6 different sources 1) Sthanabala/Positional Strength 2) Dikbala/Directional Strength 3) Kalabala/Temporal Strength 4) Chestabala/Motional Strength 5) Naisargabala/Natural Strength 6) Drgbala/Aspectual Strenght. Parasara in BPHS calls the Shad Bala “Spashta Bala” which means distinct strength. This gives light to the fact that each strength should be evaluated individually and that the sum total of the “Shad Bala” of the planets is less important than each distinct strength on its own

BPHS 27.34–36: Minimum Prescribed Strength: Guru, Budha, and Sūrya are strong, if each of their Sthanabala, Dikbala, Kalabala, Cheshtabala, and Ayanabala are, respectively, 165, 35, 50, 112 and 30 Virupas. The same required for Chandra and Śukra are 133, 50, 30, 100, and 40. For Mangal and Shani, these are 96, 30, 40, 67 and 20.bala

BPHS 27.32–33: Minimum Shadbala Requirement: 390, 360, 300, 420, 390, 330, and 300 Virupas are the Shadbala Pindas, needed for Sūrya, etc. to be considered strong. If the strength exceeds the above-mentioned values, the Graha is deemed to be very strong. If a Graha has the required Shadbala, it proves favorable to the native by virtue of its strength. However, Śani’s extreme strength gives long life as well as miseries.

Mercury Sextile Moon You think clearly, communicate effectively, make good use of humor, and have an excellent memory.

Mars Sextile Moon Courageous, energetic, helpful, and direct, you're a risk-taker who's always ready to jump into new situations

Conjunction(☿ )

Venus Conjunction Sun You're appealing, affectionate, and creative. You have a deep need to be in relationships, an innate capacity for intimacy, and a love of pleasure. This aspect also brings artistic talent

Opposition(☿ )

Sun Opposition Jupiter You're inclined to exaggerate, to become self-important, to misjudge, and to lack a sense of moderation. Extravagance may plague you. Even so, this aspect, because it features Jupiter, can bring opportunities and is often beneficial.

Mercury Opposition Jupiter You're filled with exciting ideas and good intentions. But you tend to exaggerate and leap to conclusions, and your judgment can be off-base

Square(☐ )

Sun Square Moon your conscious self desires one thing, and your subconscious yearns for something else. So you're never truly satisfied, and you may struggle with a tendency to sabotage yourself. Interestingly, this discomfort turns out to be highly motivating. Legions of accomplished people in every field have this aspect — so many that I'm not even sure it's a disadvantage.

Venus Square Moon Your love affairs travel a bumpy road of conflict and emotional frustration. Some people react by withdrawing, others by becoming demanding and possessive. Either way, you can't help feeling that you have to work harder than other people to get what you want

Vimshottari Dasha

The Sanskrit term dasha in Hindu astrology is used to indicate planetary periods, The Dasha Paddhati (system) of Directional Astrology is unique to the Hindus; it is found nowhere else. There are many kinds of Dasha systems, Parashara mentions forty-two of them, but of these only two are in vogue, namely, Vimshottari and Ashtottari

Vimshottari in Sanskrit stands for the number 120. Vimshottari Dasha assumes that the maximum duration of life of an individual human being is 120 years which is the aggregate duration of all nine planetary periods i.e. Ketu 7, Venus 20, Sun 6, Moon 10, Mars 7, Rahu 18, Jupiter 16, Saturn 19 and Mercury 17, in the order of their operation. It is not known when this system was discovered and why the number of years allotted to each varies. The year of the Vimshottari dasha is the astronomical solar year of 365.25 days
